

2015 $1,000 Snooker Championship

Neville Lovis – Champion (L)
Eddie McCaughey – Runner-up

The experienced Neville Lovis has won the 2015 Pot Black Snooker Championship and also won the high break prize with a 63. After qualifying matches between about 70 players at the Pot Black locations, the top sixteen players qualified for Saturday's competitions with the top eight progressing to the Sunday. Not one player from last year's top eight made it through this year and double defending champion Paul Veitch withdrew with an injury. North Perths' Eddie McCaughey and Baden Dewey performed well to finish in second and third places and Cannington's Ben Keen finished strongly to take out fourth position.
