

2014 $1,000 Snooker Championship

Paul Veitch – Champion (right)
Nee Chua – Runner-up (left)

Northbridge's Paul Veitch has won the Pot Black Snooker Championship for the second year in a row. After qualifying matches between about 70 players at the Pot Black locations, the top sixteen players qualified for the semi-finals. Eight players were eliminated in the Saturday semi-finals and the remaining eight players progressed to the Sunday finals. Many new faces appeared in the finals this year and in a very close finish Northbridge's Nee Chua finished second, first time player Northbridge's Chun Yan took third position and Cannington's Peter McCullagh finished fourth and won the highest break prize with a 68.
