

Snooker League 2025 Grand Final

DID YOU PUT OUR TWO IN A ROW UP?

Domenic, Clement, Rafael, Ben and Yohanes

Cannington's Did You Put My 1 Up has taken out this years Snooker League championship in emphatic style defeating the always dangerous Northbridge Jokers 7 -1 in a match where most frames were decided at the end but the 1 Ups found the victory shots. That makes it two years in a row for the 1 Ups and it looks like a Cannington dynasty is forming.

$2,540 was paid out in prize money with Ben Judge, Micky Nguyen and Kishin Bhavnani winning the top player prizes, Ben Judge winning the highest break with a 97 and the top four teams sharing $1,800 in prizes.

Thanks once again to Peter and Digby for umpiring the match in fine style and to Pot Black Cannington for hosting and the food and drinks.
